CONSULAR FORM FOR TOURISTS
CONSULATE GENERAL OF CHILE TO TOKYO, JAPAN

To apply for a Tourist Visa:

1. Please submit to the Consulate all of the documents listed below and make an appointment for an interview with the Consul. Bring to this meeting your passport and your Japanese Foreign Alien Registration Card. Under certain circumstances, your Visa Request may have to be submitted to Chile for approval.
2. The entire procedure to obtain approval takes 4 to 5 weeks, so please make sure that you submit your request at least one (1) month in advance.
3. Sometimes, Visa requests are rejected. In order for us to minimize this risk, please submit to the Consulate all other documents that you may consider useful to support your request.

Documents needed to apply for a Tourist Visa (Single or Multiple Entries):

1. Copy of the entire passport:
 - a) Your passport may not expire while you are in Chile
 - b) Your passport needs to have a Re-entry Permit for Japan
2. Copy of your Japanese Foreign Alien Registration Card (both sides)
3. Two (2) passport size pictures
4. Confirmation of the round trip air ticket to Chile
5. Itinerary of the entire trip, detailing the places you intend to visit in Chile
6. Confirmation of the hotel reservations in Chile
7. Bank Certificate (original)
8. Invitation letter from a company or person, which clearly states the length of your stay in Chile
9. Certificate of employment in Japan and a company letter, signed and sealed, stating the purpose of your trip to Chile. If you own the Company, please submit a legalized copy of the Registration Certificate.

To obtain the Visa

Check with the Consulate on the current cost of the Visa, as it depends on both your nationality and the exchange rate. Once your visa has been approved, the Consulate will contact you. Please pay at the Post Office prior to coming to the Consulate and bring your Passport, as well as the Payment Receipt.
